Atlanta—Ten professionals will be inducted into the Class of 2009 of OUTSTANDING ATLANTA at its 41st Awards Ceremony on November 6, 2009 at 6:30 pm EST in the Georgia-Pacific Auditorium.

OUTSTANDING ATLANTA is the city's premier honor for community involvement. Formed in 1968, OUTSTANDING ATLANTA has recognized annually young professionals between the ages of 21 and 36 for distinguishing themselves in their careers and for making a difference for the betterment of the community of Atlanta. For over four decades, OUTSTANDING ATLANTA and its honorees have demonstrated the qualities of outstanding leadership. Members have held key positions in business, politics, and education, as well as in non-profit, volunteer and charitable endeavors. This year's honorees include as follows:

Quanda Allen - Bank of America
Graham Balch - Atlanta Public Schools
Kimberlin Butler - Future Foundation Inc.
Lauren Estrin - Kilpatrick Stockton, LLP
Ebony Howell - Manheim Auctions (a division Cox Enterprises)
Amy Kolczak - Owen, Gleaton, Egan, Jones & Sweeney, LLP
Cornelius Lloyd - Forever Family, Inc.
Tania Narula - Sun Trust Banks
DeMarcus Peters - Enterprise Community Partners
Amy Phuong - McMaster-Carr Supply Co.
